A note from Fr. Tony

With the conclusion of Lent and the celebration of Easter, I have been noticing a lot of new faces in the pews on weekends. I think that is fantastic! I am happy to see the new faces and welcome to our community! I encourage everyone to welcome our guests and new parishioners. One advantage of being in small towns is that we can very quickly point out visitors among us. If you see someone that you don't know, don't be afraid to go up to approach them. Introduce yourself and let them know that they are welcome to be here. There may be times where people walk into church that have not been to church before or maybe it has been awhile. They may be searching for something and looking for a place to belong. Let them know that you are glad they are here. Encourage them to come back again. And if it is a person who has not been to church before, please let us know. The Catholic Mass structure with all the sitting, standing, kneeling, bowing, and other words and gestures can be a bit overwhelming. We just want them to know it is ok to not do those things until they are comfortable and know more about the Catholic faith. Have a great week!

Una nota del P. Tony

Con la conclusión de la Cuaresma y la celebración de la Pascua, he notado muchas caras nuevas en los bancos los fines de semana. ¡Creo que es fantástico! ¡Estoy feliz de ver las caras nuevas y dar la bienvenida a nuestra comunidad! Animo a todos a dar la bienvenida a nuestros invitados y nuevos feligreses. Una ventaja de estar en ciudades pequeñas es que podemos reconocer rápidamente a los visitantes entre nosotros. Si ves a alguien que no conoces, no temas a subir y a aproximarse. Preséntese y hágalos saber que son bienvenidos a estar aquí. Puede haber momentos en que las personas se acercan a la iglesia que no han estado en la iglesia antes o tal vez hace algún tiempo que no han estado. Pueden estar buscando algo y buscando un lugar para pertenecer. Hágalos saber que está contento de que estén aquí. Anímalos a volver nuevamente. Y si es una persona que no ha asistido a la iglesia antes, háganos saber. La estructura de la Misa Católica con todos los gestos de sentarse, de estar de pie, de estar de rodillas, de hacer reverencias y otras palabras y gestos puede ser un poco pesada. Solo queremos que sepan que está bien no hacer esas cosas hasta que estén cómodos y entiendan más sobre la fe Católica. ¡Que tengan una buena semana!
