Angi informed the Council that she had accepted another job, and was resigning her position. Her last day would be June 13th. She requested that her accumulated vacation time be paid, and said she would be available evenings, as needed, to train a replacement. – All present agreed and thanked her for all she has done for St. Patrick's.

Angi stated Fr. Kevin was at a retreat, and she would send him an email. Duane suggested that we be respectful of his time away, and that she inform him at the Pastoral Council meeting the following week, so it could be discussed with him and the full council. All present agreed.

Each present council member agreed to contact an absent member and inform them of Angi's resignation.
