Committee reports

Building and Grounds – Tom crane included his report.

Stewardship – Garage sale was fruitful as it brought in approximately $650.

Finance – See financial report. K of C to pay for the rectory fridge.

Liturgy – Sue Bayse reported. Leon Kuehner will pursue Totus tuus next year.

Faith Formation- See report. Duane Kelch presented idea that since rent was reduced at St. Patrick's rectory to pay for Hispanic minister's salary that that reduction should be split among other churches in the linkage. To be discussed at a later meeting.

Unfinished Business

Hispanic Minister and his family moved in to Rectory

New business

Rummage sale - See above report.

Mrs. Chuey taking over Bulletin responsibility

A town hall meeting was held after mass August 17th to address parish member's opinion on how the bi-lingual mass is progressing. At the meeting Parishioners voiced frustration with Latin being part of the Mass. No Hispanics attended the meeting.

Step-up program- Terry Carr said it was ready to go. No decision was made at this time when to start the program

Motion to adjourn at 8:15

Next meeting: St. Patrick's Parish Council in Hampton, Monday, October 14th at 6:45pm.

Closing prayer

Respectfully submitted:
Todd Wragge, Secretary
